

Isık University International Summer School Programs - Istanbul, 2014

1. Istanbul: Crossroad of Civilizations Program which is being offered since 2011, is a 4 week course (30 June- 25 July, 2014) taught by the faculty of Isık University. Instruction consists of classroom discussions of Byzantine, Ottoman and early Republican Turkey; economics, politics, social structure and culture of modern Turkey; the role of Turkey in world politics; and elementary Turkish.

Isık University has been carrying out this program successfully for the previous 3 summers in cooperation with Alfred University, NY.

You can reach the details of the Program and the commends of the previous students about this Program from the website below:

2. Turkish Language and Culture, is a 4 week (30 June-25 July, 2014) intensive language program, where we offer 3 levels of Turkish: beginner 1, beginner 2 and intermediate.

The cultural weekend trips and events are common to all classes and programs. Both summer school programs give 6 transferable credits for the students.

The fee for the two 4-week programs, including teaching materials, room, meals and board (within Turkey), is US $2,200 for the early applications before 1 April, 2014. The fee is US $2,650 for the applications until the deadline of 30 May, 2014.

These two Programs are also open to Faculty members who prefer to join with their students from their universities. The faculty members that decided to attend to our Programs with at least 10 students from their own universities will benefit from our accommodation, meal and board facilities without any charges.

As the International Office we would like to have a cooperation with your university, that Universities' faculty members and students who are interested in Turkish culture, language and in our beautiful city Istanbul would attend to our Programs. This initial cooperation and agreement granted for the Summer School would bring further mutual exchanges of our students, and faculty members.
