

About The Hague Summer School

Do you want to make a difference to the world's 'big' issues, like peace, poverty, pollution, economic and environmental crises? Do you want to be a catalyst for change? Or do you want to learn how you can work with the strengths of public and private sectors to make a better world? Answer 'yes' to these questions and summer school could be the next step in your career.

At The Hague Summer School you'll find yourself in a cutting edge and vibrant campus, in the centre of a legal, political and business-orientated city, in the heart of Europe.

Because we are a Dutch university of applied sciences, you'll experience a hands-on, open, minded and interactive learning environment. We employ a problem-solving approach, just like the real professional world, with exercises that nurture personal leadership skills, like games, debate and group work.

The Hague Summer School in the Netherlands will take place from July 6 till 31, 2015. You can choose to come for a two-week (4 ECTS points) or a four-week period (8 ECTS points).

Course content

This summer course programme, made up of elective modules, looks at connecting the private and public sector through the eyes of engineers, human rights and security professionals and entrepreneurs.

Few good reasons to apply for The Hague Summer School:

1. You will be looking at solving the world's biggest problems like child labour, poverty, pollution and economic crises by connecting the public and private sector as they join forces. THSS is a multidisciplinary summer school where more than one topic is covered and students will approach problems through the eyes of engineers, human rights and security professionals and entrepreneurs.
2. Being the city of Peace and Justice, The Hague Summer School could not be in a better location. You will be in the center of where it is all happening and visit for example international companies, the Peace Palace and the House of Parliament.
3. Because we are a Dutch university of applied sciences, students will experience a hands-on, open, minded and interactive learning environment. We employ a problem-solving approach, just like the real professional world, with exercises that nurture personal leadership skills, like games, debate and group work. At The Hague Summer School you will approach things multi-disciplinary and from different angles
4. You will gain a unique and international experience, with fellow students and lecturers from all over the world and the possibility to network with people and guest lecturers from a diverse background. This will give you a great preparation for the labour market and a head start on their career.

Application

Applying for summer school in the Netherlands is easy. Just follow the simple steps on our website before the 15th of May 2015 (the application deadline). We look forward to seeing you this summer!

Want to learn more?

Please check this video made from last years edition of The Hague Summer School and find out what our students thought of it. For more information please visit "The Hague Summer School" section at The Hague University of Applied Sciences website.